

ADVENT @ HOME

A 6-WEEK JOURNEY IN SONG

Corona United Methodist Church

WEEK 1: ZECHARIAH

A SONG OF PROMISE

THEME FOR THE DAY: WE CAN RELY ON GOD'S PROMISES

Usually, we think of Mary, Joseph and the angel Gabriel at the beginning of the Advent narrative. You're invited to approach Advent a little differently, sitting for a while with Zechariah and Elizabeth in silence. They struggled to have their only son, John. They wrestled with what it means to live, work and still trust in God, even when their situation seemed hopeless. God's promise worked in their lives in an amazing way, bringing tears of joy, praise and anticipation.

WEEK 2: MARY A SONG OF FAITH

WEEK 3: JOSEPH A SONG OF TRUST

THEME FOR DAY: OUR FAITH IN GOD MAKES IMPOSSIBLE THINGS POSSIBLE

From the silence of Zechariah and Elizabeth, we move to the first disciple Mary. God became flesh and lived among us because Mary believed and had faith in God. Mary is a model for those who are called to receive and share Jesus. When we look at Mary, we see that God wants to Christ to grow and be seen in each of us. As Jesus is born in your heart, you offer him to others. Like Mary, God comes to us with the assurance “nothing is impossible with God.” Our fear and anxiety will fade away as we sing of our joy with love.

PRAYER

Mary realized the enormity of the gift God was giving her. She recognized the magnificence of God’s plans, her role in them, her humble state as she glorified God’s name. How humble is our spirit, how mighty are your deeds, O God. You bring the might down and lift up the humble, never forgetting them. Your mercy is with those of us in need from the beginning of time to forever. Amen.

THEME FOR DAY: TRUST GOD WHEN IT COMES TO RELATIONSHIPS

The faith of Mary overshadows the wavering of Joseph. At least at first. On his own, Joseph was ready to walk away. He trusted his own wisdom and was on the brink of saying “no.” No to marriage, no to this life, no to playing a secondary role in the narrative of salvation. No muss, no fuss. Funny thing; Joseph was seen as a righteous person. He’s caught between what the law said and what love said. Then Joseph listened to God. And suddenly, he knew what to do. Joseph trusted God, trusted in faith and trusted enough to name the child ... Jesus.

Once again they followed what the angels told them and found safety. Joseph and Mary put their trust in these angelic messengers who offered them hope and care. May we be as trustful and as responsive. Amen.

WEEK 4: ELIZABETH A SONG OF BLESSINGS

WEEK 5: ANGELS & CREATION SONGS OF PRAISE & PEACE

THEME FOR THE DAY: LOOK FORWARD TO GOD'S BLESSINGS WITH ANTICIPATION

From the silence of Zechariah to the quiet faith of Mary to the trust of Joseph, we are led to the exuberant, joyful greeting of Elizabeth. We've come full circle through family and friends who have accompanied us and are coming back to see God's promise is true. The impossible, shameful and unwise can be used to bring honor and praise to God. What blessings God gives us to pay forward with joy!

Mary went to Zachariah and Elizabeth's home. When Mary arrived the baby within Elizabeth's body leapt for joy acknowledging the baby Mary was carrying as our Savior and Lord. Elizabeth and all who look for God's presence with anticipation are blessed by the Lord at this promise. Praise be to God. Amen.

THEME FOR DAY: PEACE BE WITH YOU

We confess our preoccupied with proof. All too often, we muffle faith and turn our attention to proof. We won't move if we can't see it, hear it, touch it or know it with our senses. The powerful narrative we have in Jesus coming requires something extra, a spiritual sense. We have faith in what we can't see, hear, touch or know. That's the mystery of this day. It gives us life beyond. It's a demonstration that God keeps promises. Best of all, it happens with love.

Praise God!

PRAYER

An angel appeared to shepherds in the fields announcing the birth of the savior of the world. The angels gave direction to the shepherds so they could find the baby while the angels sang songs of praise. The shepherds left to honor Jesus and to spread the good news. Praise God! Jesus is our God and guide. Amen.

THEME FOR DAY: PUT YOUR HOPE IN GOD

We come full circle. We are back in the presence of God, but now Mary and Joseph have a baby with them: Jesus. They know he's special, but don't yet understand how much Jesus will mean to others. The response of Simeon and Anna amazes them. These two people, who are like fixtures, cast a vision that stuns and amazes the parents and we, the readers. Even today, the power of their vision and the message of God fulfilling their deepest hope strikes a chord.

Faith, hope and love; the greatest is love.
