Our Vision

*We are a church of blessings, changing the world through
words and deeds of grace,
showing others how to follow
Jesus Christ.*

Pastor’s Paragraph

“Come, follow me, and I’ll show you how to fish for people.”

Matthew 4:19 (CEB)

What does it mean when we say we follow Jesus? There’s a lot we can say. Today, I’m going to focus on what it means to go “all in.” Jesus’ call affects our mind, heart and body.

We hear God’s call in our mind. I’m not talking about “voices in our head,” but the quiet thought or idea or question that pops into our mind. You’ve experience it, whether you responded or not. The Holy Spirit prompts us to turn to Jesus, learn more about him and to choose to believe he is our Savior.

Our heart changes when we make that choice. Romans 12:1-3 tells we’re transformed. We’re changed, from the inside-out. Our view shifts: we see ourselves and the world in a different way. The old, bad habits we have are still there, but they’re less appealing. We see others in a new way. We can see how we’re all alike. We all need God’s love and mercy. We want to reach out and help.

Caring for others requires us to take physical action. That’s when our body gets involved. Maybe it’s only one or two things to start, but as we begin to take action, we experience God’s presence in a new way. We feel blessed and others bless us. We want to imitate the way Jesus lived even more. Best of all, we want to invite others to join and show them how to do what we feel called to do.

When we’re “all in” – mind, heart and body, we’re acting in unity with our spirit. When we care for others because we want to share Jesus’ love, we’re in union with God. Our spiritual life becomes deeper, richer and more satisfying. We’re being made perfect in love by God’s grace.

Don’t hold back. Answer the call. You’ll be blessed.

To God be the glory ~ Pastor Eric

Among Our Family

We received the following note from Rosemary Kohout:

Dear Church Family,

I want to take a moment to thank the wonderful ladies who were responsible for my beautiful quilt. I was so touched to receive it, and could feel the love and friendship surrounding me as I wrapped myself in its lovely squares.

I am now at home and recovering, and will hopefully be as good as new! I miss all my friends and will be among you all soon, God willing!

Blessings and love ~ Rosemary Kohout

Wednesday Morning Bible Study

The Prayer Breakfast group has reorganized to form a new “Wednesday Morning Bible Study”. Bible Study will meet every Wednesday morning at 7:30 a.m. in the church conference room. This is a family friendly study group! A light breakfast will also be served. All are welcome to attend!
