A Note from Pastor Susan

All Saints Day & Tech Upgrades in Worship

Last night my husband, Mark, and I turned on our electric fireplace for the first time since we moved to Corona in July. The windy, cold weather was a welcome relief from the 100 degree days of this summer. This change in weather and season moves us toward an important day in our Christian calendar - All Saints Day.

This year, November 7 marks the specific day we will light candles and ring the bell in worship for each Corona UMC constituent who has passed away since last All Saints day. But each Sunday leading up to that important day, a new sermon focus will help us learn and contemplate our beliefs about the United Methodist Perspective on Death and Resurrection. Each of these Sundays we'll also take the opportunity to hear about the lives of those who have passed on before us. Here is the worship schedule during this time:

- Oct. 17 UM Perspective: Life After Death
Pat Harns 10/3/1930 to 1/4/2021
- Oct. 24 UM Perspective: Is Our Time of Death Predetermined?
Georgianna Kelly 9/21/1936 to 2/9/2021
Beulah Hensien ----- to 12/16/2020
- Oct. 31 UM Perspective: The End - What Will it Be Like?
Guy Parks 8/9/1943 to 6/17/2021
- Nov. 7 UM Perspective: Is Heaven Our Only End Goal?
Sally Carlson 5/9/1935 to 8/12/2021
Ray Encino 1/28/---- to 10/4/2021

TECH: If you happen to miss worship in person during this time, please watch it online via our YouTube channel, Facebook page or website. You will probably notice as you watch that our new tech equipment has greatly enhanced our video and audio production.

A GREAT BIG THANK YOU to Aaron Halsey and Jim Burrell for their generous ministry in ordering and setting up this equipment for worship. We now have joystick control to zoom and move the camera during recording, Open Broadcast Software (OBS) allowing simple live streaming, new wireless mics and next month a replacement soundboard will arrive reducing reliability issues with sound. Please express your gratitude as you see them at church and beyond.

With Joy in Christ,
Pastor Susan
